§ 700.202 Succession to duties.

(a) When there is a vacancy in the Office of the Secretary of the Navy, or during the absence or disability of the Secretary, the Under Secretary of the Navy, and, in the order prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, the Assistant Secretaries of the Navy succeed to the duties of the Secretary. If the Secretary does not prescribe an order for succession to the duties of that office, the Assistant Secretaries shall succeed to those duties after the Under Secretary in the order in which they took office as Assistant Secretaries.

(b) During the temporary absence of the above officials, the Chief of Naval Operations or, in his absence, the Vice Chief of Naval Operations succeeds to the duties of the Secretary.

[39 FR 7135, Feb. 25, 1974, as amended at 45 FR 80277, Dec. 4, 1980]

§ 700.203 The Civilian Executive Assistants.

(a) The Civilian Executive Assistants to the Secretary of the Navy are the Under Secretary of the Navy, the Assistant Secretaries of the Navy, the General Counsel of the Navy and the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy. It is the policy of the Secretary to assign Department-wide responsibilities essential to the efficient administration of the Department of the Navy to and among his Civilian Executive Assistants.

(b) The Civilian Executive Assistants, within their respective areas of responsibility, are the principal advisers and assistants to the Secretary on the administration of the affairs of the Department of the Navy. In carrying out these duties, they shall do so in harmony with the statutory position of the Chief of Naval Operations as “the principal naval adviser and naval executive to the Secretary on the conduct of activities of the Department of the Navy” and the responsibilities of the Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps as set forth in these regulations. The Civilian Executive Assistants are authorized and directed to act for the Secretary within their assigned areas of responsibility.

(c) The Under Secretary of the Navy is designated as the deputy and principal assistant to the Secretary of the Navy, and acts with full authority of the Secretary in the general management of the Department of the Navy, and supervision of offices and organizations as assigned by the Secretary.

(d) The Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management) is the Comptroller of the Navy, and is responsible for all matters related to the financial management of the Department of the Navy, including budgeting, accounting, disbursing, financing, progress and statistical reporting, auditing, management information systems, automatic data processing systems and equipment (less than integral to a weapons system), and supervision of offices and organizations as assigned by the Secretary. Under the Comptroller, the Deputy Comptroller of the Navy shall, in addition to performing other duties assigned, serve as an adviser and assistant to the Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps with respect to financial and budgetary matters.

(e) The Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Manpower, Reserve Affairs and Logistics) is responsible for the overall supervision of manpower and reserve component affairs of the Department of the Navy, including policy and administration of affairs related to military (active and inactive) and civilian personnel; all stages of the acquisition of naval ships funded by the appropriation “Ships Construction, Navy”; all Department of the Navy acquisition
